

Timothy Schank
Senior Loss Prevention Counsel, ALAS

Tim is a Senior Loss Prevention Counsel in the ALAS Loss Prevention department. His responsibilities include writing and speaking on topics related to professional responsibility and risk management. Prior to joining ALAS, Tim was Assistant General Counsel at Vedder Price P.C. in Chicago where he was involved in the firm's professional responsibility initiatives, including preparing policies, analyzing processes and implementing systems. He also worked closely with the firm's risk management and information services departments on information security and data privacy matters.