

Mission and 2023–2024 Strategic Plan

In the identified objective and goals below, we commit to continually ask:

Are we advancing diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging?

Is the activity designed to be behavior changing?

Does the activity advance coalition-building or connection to other key constituencies?

EDUCATION AND AWARENESS

We will lead efforts to elevate well-being as a prominent issue of importance within legal circles through educational and awareness-building activities.

- Biennial Conference
- Innovative Content
- Well-Being Week in Law

ADVOCACY AND TECHNICAL SUPPORT

We will elevate our voice on well-being issues through stronger engagement on policy discussions.

- Support Law Firms, Bar Associations, State and Local Task Force
- Clearinghouse for Well-Being Information and Resources
- Toolkits for Solo and Small Firms and State Task Forces
- Collaboration of Thought Leaders

RESEARCH AND SCHOLARSHIP

We will advance evidence-based data and scholarship regarding well-being in the legal profession.

- Aggregate Known Research and Survey Data
- Original Research and Surveys
- Longitudinal Study

The Institute for Well-Being in Law's (IWIL) mission is to transform the legal profession's approach to well-being. Through advocacy, research, education, technical and resource support, and stakeholder partnerships, IWIL strives to lead a culture shift in law to establish well-being as a core centerpiece of professional success.

1300 Piccard Drive, Suite LL 14
Rockville, MD 20850

T: (240) 558-9210

lawyerwellbeing.net